BANGOR - Both Boys and Girls basketball teams from Bangor and Pen Argyl met up Saturday for their annual cross town rivalry games, the first of two. The next one for the girls will be on Feb. 4th at Bangor and Feb. 5 at Pen Argyl for the Boys.

First up were the girls, Green Nights with a record of 4-6 and a big win over Southern Lehigh 52-49 the night before. Bangor came in hot with an 8-2 record but lived on the three point line for a low percentage in the first half which kept the game close. The second half was a different story when those 3 pointers started dropping, Slaters pulled away 63-22.

Pen Argyl Boys came in with a record of 2-6 and Slaters with a 4-8 and some injuries for key players.

The Slaters over powered Pen Argyl with their fast paced offence 62-32

Bangor and Pen Argyl have been rivals for years, playing each other since 1922.
