Emrick to Serve as Chair of House Professional Licensure Committee

By Rep. Joe Emrick

HARRISBURG – Rep. Joe Emrick (R-Northampton) today announced he will serve as Republican chairman of the House Professional Licensure Committee for the 2025-26 Legislative Session.

“Pennsylvania is home to a wide range of occupations who may require a license to operate in their official capacity,” said Emrick. “Ensuring professionals are properly licensed protects our consumers and promotes a healthy environment for businesses, health organizations and the public.”

“It is an honor to serve in a leadership role within the state House of Representatives,” said Emrick. “Serving as a committee chair is an essential part of effective governance, and I look forward to working with committee members from across the Commonwealth to deliver quality legislation and results for all Pennsylvanians.”

Last session, Emrick served as Republican chairman of the House Commerce Committee.

Have You Heard of Hospice Fraud?

By Rep. Joe Emrick

The Federal Trade Commission is warning of another scam targeting older adults – hospice fraud.

Scammers are contacting these citizens – with calls, texts, emails, fake ads and even door-to-door visits – claiming they'll set you up with services like free cooking, cleaning and home health care. What they likely won't tell you is how. They want to commit fraud by signing you up for Medicare hospice care. Then, they can bill Medicare for all kinds of services in your name.

To protect yourself from hospice scams:

- Never give your Medicare number to someone offering “free” services like house-keeping or cooking. Medicare doesn't offer free services like that.
- Never agree to sign up for hospice care in exchange for perks or gifts like money, gift cards or groceries.
- Know that Medicare will never come to your home to sign you up for services. If someone comes to your door, says they're from Medicare, and tries to get you to sign up for services, they're lying. Don't give them any information.

2025-26 Session Officially Underway

By Rep. Joe Emrick

Members of the House were sworn into office for the 2025-26 Legislative Session on Tuesday, and I am ready to get to work to address the challenges facing our Commonwealth and our communities.

I will serve as Republican chairman of the House Professional Licensure Committee.

Pennsylvania is home to a wide range of occupations who may require a license to operate in their official capacity. Ensuring professionals are properly licensed protects our consumers and promotes a healthy environment for businesses, health organizations and the public.”

It is an honor to serve in a leadership role within the state House of Representatives. Serving as a committee chair is an essential part of effective governance, and I look forward to working with committee members from across the Commonwealth to deliver quality legislation and results for all Pennsylvanians.
