When it comes to housing,

little things shouldn't make a difference.

If you have children and a landlord refuses to rent to you, requires a higher security deposit, limits the use of facilities, or says you can only live in certain areas of a housing complex... that could be discrimination. And housing discrimination is against the law.

Award-Winning New Yorker Cartoonist to Give Presentation at Stroud Mansion

By Amy Leiser, Executive Director

STROUDSBURG- Go Collaborative, in partnership with the Monroe County Historical Association, is pleased to announce a free presentation open to the public. Bob Eckstein, award-winning illustrator, writer, and New Yorker cartoonist will give an afternoon presentation based on his work, "The Illustrated History of the Snowman." The program will be Wednesday, February 6, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. at the Stroud Mansion, 900 Main Street, Stroudsburg, PA 18360. Snow Date is Friday, February 8th) Books will be available for purchase with the author signing copies following the event. This event coincides with Go Collaborative's "Snowmen of Stroudsburg" community initiative to promote artists and businesses during the winter season.

The snowman is not just part of our childhood memories, but is an integral part of our world culture, appearing alongside dignitaries and celebrities during momentous events. Again and again, the snowman pops up in rare prints, paintings, early movies, advertising and, over the past century, in every art form imaginable. And the jolly snowman -- ostensibly as pure as the driven snow -- also harbors a dark past full of political intrigue, sex, and violence.

This special program is free, but reservations are required due to limited space. Light refreshments will be served. The presentation will be held on the 2nd floor of the Stroud Mansion, which is not handicap-accessible. For additional information or to make a reservation, please contact the Monroe County Historical Association office at (570) 421-7703 or email at info@monroehistorical.org.
