Triplet Brothers All Received Their Eagle Scout Award

By Senator Scavello

PEN ARGYL - This past weekend we had the privilege of attending a very special Eagle Scout Court of Honor for Thomas, Marcus and Nicholas Ruiz – triplet brothers – who all received their Eagle Scout award. Previously, I had the honor of presenting their older brother, Matthew, with his Eagle award as well. If you ever have the opportunity to speak with one of these young men, you will know right away that they are incredibly talented and servant-minded with strong leadership qualities.

They are all very active in our community, with Troop 100 and St. John's Church in East Stroudsburg. Their respective projects benefitted both St. John's and one of the local elementary schools in East Stroudsburg.

Four Eagle Scouts in one family is a great accomplishment and is a strong testament to both their personal character and their parents' guidance. Congratulations to you all!
