IN REVIEW

It's been a busy – and snowy – week here in Washington. Yesterday, I joined my colleagues from both sides of the aisle to pass a short-term funding bill to keep the lights on and prevent a costly government shutdown. While this was a necessary bill, it is not a permanent solution to funding our government, which will require bipartisan support and good faith negotiations. I remain committed to working with colleagues on the other side of the aisle to support a long-term funding bill that protects the priorities of our district.

While I was voting in D.C., my amazing staff in our Lehigh Valley offices were busy attending community events. From Eagle Scout Courts of Honor to ribbon cuttings and MLK Jr. Day events (more on this later!), my district team is always thrilled to celebrate with members of our community. And they are always ready to help – if you need help with your Social Security, passports, Medicare, or other government service, don't hesitate to reach out to one of my constituent advocates by filling out the form on my website or calling my office.

Rep. Wild Celebrates MLK Jr. Day in Our Community

On Monday, our country celebrated Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Each year on this day, we are called to honor Dr. King's life and legacy and to recommit ourselves to the fight for a more peaceful and just world.

This MLK Jr. Day, I was thrilled to join celebrations across the Lehigh Valley. I started my day in Allentown, with the Allentown NAACP's MLK day celebration, then attended a vigil at the Freedom Memorial, before ending with a service at Greater Shiloh Church in Easton. It was truly a remarkable day, filled with people who exemplify Dr. King's mission in our community.
