Pennsylvanians Deserve the Truth about Electricity Costs

By Senator Rosemary Brown

This week, Gov. Josh Shapiro made multiple announcements about the cost of electricity in Pennsylvania. One of those claims is that customers will save billions of dollars through an agreement he made with PJM, a regional transmission organization that coordinates the movement of wholesale electricity in all or part of 13 states and the District of Columbia.

The reality is that none of the governor's announcements will save any of us a single dollar on our electric bills. The truth is that his administration's policies have directly contributed to higher prices.

I have worked to prioritize the advancement of meaningful legislation to help address rising costs for consumers of electricity. It is unfortunate that many of the measures were not supported by the Shapiro Administration during the last two years. We will continue working to enact energy policies which reduce costs for hardworking Pennsylvanians, ensure the future stability of our power grid, and help expand access to good, family sustaining jobs here in Pennsylvania.

Honoring 40 Years of Service: Michael Seip's Dedication to the Stroudsburg Fire Department

By Senator Rosemary Brown

Volunteer firefighters are the backbone of our communities, answering the call to protect lives and property—often at great personal sacrifice. This year, the Stroudsburg Fire Department recognized one of its most dedicated members, Michael Seip, for an incredible 40 years of service.

At the department's annual banquet, Roxana from my office had the honor of presenting Michael with a Senate Citation on my behalf, celebrating his decades of commitment to keeping our community safe. His unwavering service, leadership, and dedication to the fire department exemplify the very best of what it means to serve.

We are deeply grateful to Michael and to all the volunteer firefighters who dedicate their time and energy to protecting our communities. Their selflessness and courage make a lasting impact, and we thank them for their service.

Congratulations, Michael, on this well-earned recognition, and thank you for 40 years of dedication to Stroudsburg and beyond!
