

Author Heather McGhee Coming to NCC for Black History Month

By NCC

BETHLEHEM - As a part of Black History Month programming at the college, Northampton Community College (NCC) will be hosting Heather McGhee for an author talk and Q&A with community, students, and faculty and staff. This event is being co-sponsored by Lehigh University.

McGhee designs and promotes solutions to inequality in America. Her first book, The Sum of Us: What Racism Costs Everyone and How We Can Prosper Together, spent 10 weeks on the New York Times bestseller list and was long-listed for the National Book Award and Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction, among numerous other awards.

Event is Thursday, February 29, 7 - 8 p.m. at Bethlehem Campus, College Center, Room 220, 3835 Green Pond Rd. Bethlehem, PA.

The Chicago Tribune said McGhee's book, The Sum of Us..., should be "required reading to move the country forward." Over her career in public policy, she has crafted legislation, testified before Congress and helped shape presidential campaign platforms. Her work includes training and striving for racial equity and awareness. Please join us for an evening of discussion with this distinguished author and influential career woman.

25th Lehigh Valley Auto Show: Celebrating a Milestone in Automotive Excellence

By Greater Lehigh Valley Auto Dealers Association

Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, February 20, 2024 - The Greater Lehigh Valley Auto Dealers Association is thrilled to announce the highly anticipated 25th Lehigh Valley Auto Show, themed "For the Love of Cars." The show will begin on Thursday, March 21st, with the 2024 VIP Gala held the evening of March 20th. This milestone event promises an unforgettable experience for automotive enthusiasts and consumers alike.

Auto shows have long been regarded as magical events, providing consumers with the opportunity to make personal connections with vehicles and explore the latest innovations in the automotive industry. As attendees walk around the expansive show floor, they immerse themselves in the sights, sounds, and even the scents of new cars, allowing them to compare options and make informed purchasing decisions.

"We are excited to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Lehigh Valley Auto Show, an event that continues to captivate audiences and shape the automotive landscape," said Dan Moyer, Executive Director of the Greater Lehigh Valley Auto Dealers Association. "This year's show promises to be more spectacular than ever, with a lineup of events and attractions that showcase the passion and innovation driving the automotive industry forward."

The festivities kicked off with the VIP Gala on March 20th, a ticketed event open to the public for the first time. Proceeds from the evening will benefit the nonprofit organization "Bloom for Women," which supports women and children affected by sex trafficking in the Lehigh Valley. Attendees can enjoy live music by Best Friends Girl, delectable cuisine, and entertainment while supporting a worthy cause.
