

The Future is Female: Women, Space and NASA

By Da Vinci Science Center

ALLENTOWN - Join us at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, March 10 for The Future is Female: Women, Space and NASA!

This virtual program is your opportunity to meet the women powering NASA's mission to put the first woman on the moon. This presentation is a preview of our upcoming PBS39 documentary special Moon-to-Mars: The Next Giant Leap, which highlights the roles companies in the Lehigh Valley and around Pennsylvania play in the space program.

Following the presentation, PBS39's Megan Frank will moderate a live panel discussion. Guests will include:

-Former astronaut and Lehigh University professor Terry Hart. Professor Hart will discuss the evolving role of women in space exploration and share what it was like to have Sally Ride as his NASA desk mate.

-Rocket engineer Casey Hoffman of Pittsburgh's Astrobotic Technology. Hoffman will share stories from the numerous space missions she's worked on and talk about why more women should pursue STEM careers.

-Director of Education Karen Knecht from Da Vinci Science Center in Allentown. Knecht will discuss opportunities for women in STEM. Go to : <https://www.wlv.org/virtual-events/>

FIRST EVER D&L Trail Guidebook and APP

By D&L

EASTON - Everything you need to make the most of your adventures on the D&L Trail.

We've developed our FIRST EVER D&L Trail Guidebook and APP. These resources bring together the adventure that awaits you on the D&L Trail and the rich industrial heritage that was and is throughout the Corridor. Whether you want to disconnect completely or indulge in an interactive mobile experience, learn all there is to know about the Corridor at the tip of your fingers.

The Guidebook

You asked, we answered. Leaf through the D&L Trail region by region, trailhead to trailhead, and mile by mile. We cover our most frequently asked questions, outline Trail Friendly Businesses for every need, list points of interest along the way and even provide itineraries for multi-day and day trips. 120 pages of pure genius from the people who know the trail best. Get your print copy or our downloadable DIGITAL version to get the insider scoop on all things D&L Trail.

D&L Discoverer

When you step on the D&L Trail, you're standing on history. Not simply an outdoor recreation path, the D&L follows the historic route of anthracite coal from mine to market. The D&L Discoverer App places a historian and trail expert at the tip of your fingers. Get details about the trail, while discovering historic sites through push notifications and geolocation. Take one of the many curated tours, it's like having a historian in your pocket.

Use the D&L Trail Guidebook & App together or separately for a one-of-kind masterful experience of the Corridor. Not sure the best one for you? Whether you're a history buff or hardcore trail user, each has something for you. If you need specific ride itineraries or want nitty gritty details about the trail, checkout our guidebook. Looking to take a walking history lesson? Check out our app and its many historical tours, with push notifications that let you know as you're approaching a history rich site.
