

12th Anniversary of FuSia Dance Company "Kaleidoscope"

By Anne Brown

EAST STROUDSBURG - FuSia Dance Company celebrated its 12th anniversary pre-professional dance company concert entitled "Kaleidoscope" on February 22nd at Notre Dane Theater in East Stroudsburg. The show brought to the stage the talents of 80 dancers ranging in ages 6-18. Each of the pieces explored the meanings, feelings, and stories colors can express when paired with movement! The diversity of the choreography and various genres brought so much color and vibrancy to this show.

My daughter is in her first year with FuSia Dance company in the mini group. She has been part of the FuSia Dance Center for three years. This was my first company show I attended and I was completely blown away by the talent of every single dancer that stepped on stage. I am so proud to have my dancer part of this dance family and am looking forward to several more amazing company shows. Owner Francesca Marinaro states after the show, "Our 12th annual company concert has left me speechless. The dancing, the love, the unity and the celebration of colors was so impactful. Our dancers filled the stage with incredible talent, strength and love. It was so powerful. Our team of teachers, guest artists, collaborators and staff just continued to create the most wonderful community filled with incredible artistry! I am grateful beyond measure, proud beyond words and believe in my heart that our FuSia is truly a sacred and special place. Our dancers show the world that the future is bright because we stand together and share the joy of dance with one another! Congratulations all!"

There was also a guest performance by the school's FuSia DanceLab company under the direction of Joseph Ambrosia, choreography by Brielle Johnson and a special performance by the school's professional NYC based dance company, Drye/Marinaro Dance under the direction of Jamie Drye and Francesca Marinaro.

Choreographers of the show include esteemed FuSia Faculty, including Owner, Francesca Marinaro, Assistant Director, Bridget Hopkins, Company Manager, Jade Ryan, as well as teachers Joseph Ambrosia, Megan Brosnan, and Brielle Johnson. Guest collaborators include Robert Redick and Jamie Drye.

Spring Break Vacation Scams

Despite what the Groundhog says, winter isn't going away anytime soon. That fact has many of us looking for a warm getaway this spring, but beware scammers could be lurking on the other end of that sweetheart spring break deal. These three tips will help you spot a potential travel scam. First, be wary of any deal that is dramatically lower than what else is available at your destination. Next, verify the legitimacy of online travel sites by looking closely at the web address – scammers often “spoof” legitimate hotels and third party booking sites. Finally, don't trust anyone who requests a wire transfer or prepaid gift card to pay for your getaway – these are the payment forms preferred by today's scammers.

Don't get left out in the cold this spring, be a fraud fighter! If you can spot a scam, you can stop a scam.

Report scams to local law enforcement.
