Celebrating Our Legacy: America250PA Mural Unveiling

By Rep. Ann Flood

Between budget hearings in Harrisburg, I attended the unveiling of the America250PA mural at the Capitol on Wednesday. Established in 2018, America250PA is leading efforts to honor our state's role in our nation's past, present and future.

The red crayon on the mural marks the 138th District, home to Crayola in Forks Township. It's great to be featured on this fantastic display! Watch the unveiling ceremony here.

Back in November, I joined the House Tourism, Economic and Recreational Development Committee on a tour of Bethlehem, Easton and Allentown to explore ways to boost tourism and economic growth with a special focus on the upcoming Lehigh Valley 250 celebration.

As Pennsylvania's third largest and fastest growing metropolitan area, the Lehigh Valley is rich in history and opportunity, making it a key part of the nationwide America 250 commemoration.
