Free Tax Filing Resources Available

By Rep. Joe Emrick

The Pennsylvania Department of Revenue is reminding taxpayers of free online tools and resources it offers to help people seamlessly file their tax returns.

Roughly 2.1 million Pennsylvanians are eligible this tax season to use Direct File, an online tool offering taxpayers the option to file their federal and state tax returns at no cost directly with the IRS and Department of Revenue. It is the first time the program is being offered in the Commonwealth.

Direct File is currently designed for Pennsylvanians with common tax situations. The IRS offers an eligibility checker that will walk you through the steps to see if you're eligible.

Taxpayer service and assistance is also available through the department's Online Customer Service Center, which contains answers to hundreds of common income tax questions and allows taxpayers to securely submit a question to the department. Taxpayers may also call 717-787-8201 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, for state tax assistance. In-person assistance is available at Department of Revenue district offices.

Click here for additional information. The tax filing deadline is April 15. <https://links.pahousenews.com/q/6AAPPf7fW0Xq5qTIGsBlvhWFGI7WHvnDVjZcOJYnZ0aW1lc0ByY24uY29tw4gnupBsPwGfZDyLh1XnBdDW53jRw>

Be Aware of Tax Season Scams

By Rep. Joe Emrick

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is again warning taxpayers about tax season scams. They've identified the "dirty dozen" most common scams for individuals, businesses and tax professionals.

They include phishing scams via email or text, bad social media tax advice, fake IRS individual online account help, fake charities, false fuel tax credit claims, credits for sick leave and family leave that are no longer available, bogus self-employment tax credits and ghost tax return preparers, among others.

Click here to learn more about these scams and how to protect yourself. And remember, the IRS will never contact you using social media or text message.

The first contact from the IRS usually comes in the mail. Taxpayers who are unsure whether they owe money to the IRS can view their tax account information at IRS.gov.
