Explore a New Career or Further Your Education in Dental Assisting at NCC

By NCC

BETHLEHEM, PA - Northampton Community College's (NCC) six-week Dental Assisting Program is a great opportunity for those exploring a new career opportunity. The program teaches participants the skills required to become a valuable member of a dental health team and apply both their interpersonal and technical abilities. Program instruction includes preparation of instruments, materials and equipment; assessment and education of clients; and preparing patients for their appointments. Students will also participate in a clinical externship arranged by the college to gain valuable hands-on experience prior to entering the workforce.

If you're interested in learning more about NCC's Dental Assisting program, join us for a free information session on March 25,

NORTHAMPTON
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., at the Fowler Family Southside Center. To review important requirements and to register, visit www.northampton.edu/dental-assisting. The program starts June 3, all requirements are due by May 23. For questions, please call 610-332-6585 or email healthcare@northampton.edu.

Additionally, for those already in the field and looking to enhance their skills, NCC is offering an "Improving Radiographic Techniques for the Dental Team" course on April 4, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., at the Fowler Family Southside Center. This course can also fulfill required continuing education units (CEUs). More information can be found by visiting the link above.
