

Iftar Dinner with Wind Gap Residents

By Rep. Ann Flood

WIND GAP - My staff and I were kindly invited to attend an Iftar dinner on Thursday evening at sundown during the 30 days of Ramadan at the home of Hayrunnisa Kalac in Wind Gap. We enjoyed a tasty lentil soup to break the fast.

The delicious meal included chicken with vegetable casserole, rice, eggplant, hummus, corn with roasted peppers and salad with homemade dressing. The evening ended with a sweet treat of baklava, Turkish banana graham cracker custard and tea. We ate while enjoying friendship, conversation and getting to know each other during our visit.

Ramadan 2024 began on Sunday, March 10, and ends on Monday, April 8. Traditionally, those who celebrate Ramadan fast from sunrise until sundown. Many awaken before sunrise to eat breakfast and pray, then abstain from food and water until sundown, while prayers are done several times throughout the day.
