Bangor High School Play 'Anastasia'

By Michael Ortoski

UMBT - Students from Bangor High School preformed 'Anastasia: The Musical' this past weekend with a packed house for all three shows.

Director Butch Di Minico and Music Director Rebecka Kranich said all the students put in hours of preparation to make this years play a success, and thank you to all the parents for all their support."

Anya was played by Elizabeth Rutt, Dmitry was played by Andrew Spagnola, Vlad was played by Jace Paynter, Gleb was played by Karter Mobley, Countess Lily was played by Sara Greene, Dowager Empress was played by Gia Altieri

A big shout out goes to the pit crew musicians.

PLOT SYNOPSIS: When the Dowager Empress Maria Fyodorovna Romanov gives her beloved granddaughter Anastasia a music box, she has no idea it is the last time she will see the little girl. As the musical ANASTASIA begins, Russia is on the verge of revolution and Anastasia's family—the imperial Romanovs—falls victim to the tide of history. When the Dowager Empress receives the news that they have been put to death, she believes she has lost her entire family.

Rumors begin to surface that one Romanov daughter might have survived. Dmitry and Vlad, two opportunistic Russian con artists, attempt to find an impressionable girl to pass off as Anastasia to the Dowager Empress, who is offering a reward for her granddaughter's safe return to Paris.

They find Anya, a young woman suffering from amnesia, who has spent the past years traveling across Russia. Dmitry and Vlad begin to "teach" her what she needs to know if her claim to the Romanov family is to be believed. Anya, Vlad, and Dmitry
