Funding to Combat Food Insecurity

"While we cannot control national budget decisions, we can ensure that we are doing everything possible within our little corner of the world with the limited resources that we have, to assist those in need," said McClure. "By issuing these funds, we aim to bolster the efforts of these agencies that are working tirelessly to fight hunger and support our farmers and families."

The impact of these cuts will be profound, and Northampton County Executive Lamont G. McClure will continue to advocate for solutions that support local farmers, food banks, and vulnerable populations.
