Honoring Eagle Scout Benjamin Courtade

By Rep. Ann Flood

Congratulations to Benjamin Thomas Courtade of Troop 29 on earning the rank of Eagle Scout! Ben has shown outstanding dedication and leadership throughout his Scouting journey.

For his Eagle Scout project, Ben remodeled a room at Edgeboro Moravian Church, creating a dedicated space for storing and processing donations. The project included new walls, flooring, countertops, and shelves, benefiting our the church community.

It was my honor to present Ben with a certificate of recognition for his outstanding achievements during his visit to my Pen Argyl office. Great work on this impressive accomplishment!

National Volunteer Month: Support Your Fire Department!

By Rep. Ann Flood

April is National Volunteer Month, and the Office of the State Fire Commissioner is using the opportunity to highlight the vital role volunteer firefighters play in Pennsylvania.

With 90% of fire companies relying on volunteers, these dedicated individuals help keep our communities safe. Fire companies need more than just firefighters; they also need volunteers for fundraising, outreach, and other support roles. Consider stepping up to serve your community.

For more information on volunteering with your local fire department, contact your local fire company or visit the Pennsylvania Office of the State Fire Commissioner's website <https://www.pa.gov/agencies/osfc/volunteer.html>.
