IN REVIEW

It's been a busy week and it's gearing up to be a busy weekend. As you may have heard, the House is working round the clock to pass critical international aid for our allies engaged in conflict abroad. While Saturday votes aren't fun for anyone, I'm glad that after months of delay, we are finally going to provide our allies with the support they need. I've heard from members of my community who have been asking us for months now to get this done, and I'll work as hard as possible to see this through.

As you start planning for your week ahead, don't forget that Tuesday is the Pennsylvania primary election! Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Election Day. To find your polling place and learn more about the election, click here.

Finally, I'd like to wish all the families in our community who will be celebrating next week a happy Passover! As we reflect on our ancestors' journey to freedom, may their hope and faith inspire us all. From my family to yours, Chag Pesach Sameach!

Joined by Gold Star Mothers, Rep. Wild Calls for Renewed Funding for Ukraine

On Tuesday, I was proud to join the Congressional Ukraine Caucus and Gold Star mothers to honor the lives lost in Ukraine and call on Speaker Johnson to bring critical Ukraine funding to the floor for a vote. I was so moved that many Ukrainian Americans from the Greater Lehigh Valley and across the nation joined us in our call to action.

I've long been calling for this aid, and I'm hopeful that this weekend we will finally pass Ukraine funding on the House floor. In honor of the lives we have lost in the conflict and on behalf of the Ukrainian American community in PA-07, it's time to get this done.

Boosting Autism Awareness, Acceptance

By Rep Joe Emrick

SLATE BELT - April is Autism Acceptance Month, formerly known as Autism Awareness Month. The month is designed to help empower autistic individuals and their families, and to ensure improved support and opportunities in education, employment, accessible housing, affordable health care and long-term support services.

The Pennsylvania Department of Human Services' Office of Developmental Programs works to provide an array of support services for individuals of all ages, as well as their families. The Autism Services, Education, Resources and Training Collaborative (ASERT) is a statewide initiative to provide streamlined access to information for Pennsylvanians living with autism.
