

The Lehigh Valley Building Trades Endorse Lamont McClure

By Madison Palmer, Campaign Manager McClure for PA

ALLENTOWN, PA. — The Lehigh Valley Building Trades are endorsing Democratic County Executive Lamont McClure against Republican Ryan Mackenzie to represent Pennsylvania's Seventh Congressional District. This shows major momentum in the race for Pennsylvania's Seventh Congressional district.

"Lamont McClure's unwavering commitment to good-paying union jobs, infrastructure investment, and economic opportunity makes him the clear choice for Congress," said Lehigh Valley Building Trades President, Paul Anthony. "The Lehigh Valley Building Trades proudly endorse Lamont McClure for Pennsylvania's Seventh Congressional District."

The LVBT are an umbrella organization for more than 20 member local unions that work in the construction industry in the Greater Lehigh Valley and represent workers in the region that have had a major impact on the Lehigh Valley's infrastructure and economy.

"I'm honored to have the support of the Lehigh Valley Building Trades," McClure said. "These are the men and women who build the Lehigh Valley—and I'll never stop fighting for them in Congress."

Lamont McClure began his career fighting for workers sickened by asbestos. As county executive, he worked to support 1,600 small businesses through the pandemic and cut property taxes by almost 10 percent.

McClure has announced endorsements from more than 60 unions and local officials:
