

Chief Jonathon Hoadley's "Official" Swearing In Ceremony

Top - Slate Belt Regional Police Department Chief Jonathon Hoadley is administered the oath of office by Northampton County Judge Craig Dally

By Micaeh Ortoski

PEN ARGYL - The Slate Belt Regional Police (SBRP) Commission had their "official" Swearing in Ceremony for Chief Hoadley due to COVID19 in 2020 at the Weona Park Pavilion this past Thursday. WEONA park location was chosen for the ceremony because Hoadley started their as an officer. His chief at the time was Former Pen Argyl police Chief Philip Viglione, who said "Hoadley was always diligent, knowledgeable, and someone who always took the time out to get the job done."

After the SBRP was formed in 2015 for Wind Gap, Plainfield TWSP and Pen Argyl Hoadley proved himself to be a leader and rose up through the ranks to sergeant and lieutenant.

Dave Hess Chairman of SBRP commission first thanked Pen Argyl Borough and Manager Robin Zmoda for hosting the event, It's the first since the Pandemic hit and Pat Stonaker, Administrative Assistant for SBRP for organizing the event.

"Hoadley is being handed the torch from the first Chief of SBRP Dave Mettin and joking ('that may pop up on a triva night some where in the Slate Belt, who was the first SBRP Chief?'). Hess then called Dave Mettin to the podium to say a few words and pass the torch on.

"I'm happy to be back in the Slate Belt to be apart of the Swearing in of Chief Hoadley. Thru my time as chief of SBRP Jonathon had proven himself to be a leader, level headed and thoughtful when dealing with crisis. He cares greatly about the community and those who live here. He always showed an unending

Right - Beth Hoadley pins new badge on her husband Chief Jonathon Hoadley

Continued on page 10

Green Knights Softball Senior Day

By Michael Ortoski

PEN ARGYL - Pen Argyl H.S. held their Senior Day for softball and this year there was just one, Kamryn Bonser # 21.

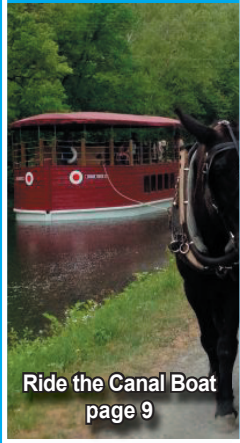

She is the daughter of David Bonser and Michele Fontanez. Bonser has been playing softball for 13 years and basketball for 11.

She is a 4 year member of band, chorus, chamber singers and jazz band. Her future plans are to enlist in the United States Air Force.

Head coach Bill Schankel and asst. coaches Jim Trach, Tom Prosser, Kassandra Kresch, Charlie Comstock, Stephanie Krensnopera and Sherwood Roth congratulated her and her parents for all her hard work on and off the field.

Her teammates lined up down first base line as Kamryn walked down the line to receive hugs and gifts from all of them.

One highlight of their game against Wilson was a towering home run hit down the first base line by Kate Kenech who was swarmed by her teammates when she got to home plate. The Knights won 8-4.

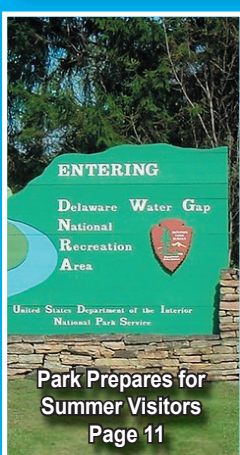

Ride the Canal Boat page 9

St. Luke's Hospice Bike Ride Page 4

Carl Leonard Millard Jr.
February 25, 1942
April 29, 2021
page 2

Park Prepares for Summer Visitors Page 11

John T. Schimmel
Public Accountant
1400 NORTHAMPTON STREET
EASTON, PA 18042-4024
(610) 253-4000 Tool FREE (800) 370-8294
Email: john_schimmel@yahoo.com
Website: www.johntschimmelpa.com

WE CHANGED OUR NAME!
Horn's Outdoor, Inc.
is now
W&H OUTDOOR POWERSPORTS
We are the same great people and will continue to provide the same quality of service to our valued customers!
1169 Mt Bethel Highway, Mt Bethel, PA.
610-583-6614

Better Homes
REAL ESTATE
WILKINS & ASSOCIATES
DAWN R. MILLER
Associate Broker
dmmiller@wilkins1.com
Mobile: 610-504-5187
Office: 610-421-8950
Fax: 610-421-8476
7164 Route 209 Stroudsburg, PA. 18360
www.BHGWilkins.com
www.Mountain2ValleyRealEstate.com

Justin Huratiak
SUPERVISOR
WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP