Celebrate Conservation with Music, Food, and Brews at the Greenways Jamboree

By Brittney Waylen

EASTON – Music, food and brews will take center stage at the Greenways Jamboree on Monday, June 10th at Wayne A. Grube Memorial County Park, located at 1200 Willowbrook Road, Northampton, PA 18067. This public event will celebrate Lehigh Valley Greenways Conservation Landscape Partnership's 20th Anniversary and Northampton County Parks and Recreation's 50th Anniversary.

Guests are invited to connect with conservation and recreation organizations who will have information, giveaways and merchandise from 4-8pm. Attendees can explore the opportunities of LV Greenways while enjoying tacos, burgers, and ice cream provided by Uno Taqueria, GrubNight, and Sweet Scoops food trucks. New Trail Brewing will feature the LV Greenways 20th Anniversary Hazy IPA, and live music from the Billy Bauer Band will begin at 6pm.

The Greenways Jamboree coincides with the 28th Annual Lehigh River Sojourn, scheduled for June 8-11th. The Lehigh River Sojourn is a guided paddling trip on the Lehigh River led by Wildlands Conservancy, a nonprofit land trust of the Lehigh Valley and Lehigh River watershed. Sojourners paddling on June 10th can opt to camp at Wayne A. Grube Memorial County Park. The 200-acre park is ADA accessible and features trails, playgrounds, picnic pavilions, modern restrooms, and a sand volleyball court. To register for any or all days of the Lehigh River Sojourn visit <https://www.wildlandspa.org/lehighriversojourn/>.

Guest speakers for the Greenways Jamboree will include Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources Secretary Cindy Dunn, Northampton County Executive Lamont McClure, and Wildlands Conservancy President Chris Kocher.
