a WILD week IN REVIEW

On Memorial Day, Rep. Wild Honors Those Who Gave Their Lives Defending the U.S.

On Memorial Day, I often think of my Uncle Ted. He was a Lieutenant Colonel in the Marines, Commanding Officer of the 4th Marine Regiment. During his deployment to Vietnam, he was killed, leaving behind a widow and young children.

On Monday, I gathered with members of our community to honor the sacrifice my Uncle Ted, service-members from our neighborhoods, and so many Americans have made defending our country. They gave their lives for our freedom, and on Memorial Day, and every day, we honor them and hold their families in our hearts and minds.

At Birches Grand Opening, Rep. Wild Vows to Fight for Seniors Across America

On Wednesday, I had the privilege of attending the grand opening for the Birches of the Lehigh Valley care facility in Easton. The new Birches facility will ensure seniors in our community are able to retire with dignity, security, and comfort. Like many of you, I've experienced the challenges of seeking care for an aging loved one, and I'm so grateful for the respect and dedication the incredible caregivers in our community provide for their patients every day.

In Congress, I'll always fight to protect the benefits our seniors have earned and stand up to dangerous cuts to Social Security and Medicare. While some want to gut these essential programs, I know just how important they are to so many seniors in our community.
