

Congratulations, Eagle Scouts!

By Michael Ortoski

NAZARETH - On Saturday afternoon, Rep. Ann Flood and Rep. Joe Emrick participated in the ceremony to officially recognize Paul Janis Jr. as an Eagle Scout. This event was held at St. John's United Church of Christ in Nazareth. Paul is part of Troop 78 in Nazareth, along with Jared Dewey who also achieved the rank of Eagle Scout and was recognized at the ceremony.

Janis' Eagle Scout project was completed at the Graver Arboretum at Muhlenberg College in Bath, where he removed invasive plants, refurbished trails and added benches for additional seating for the arboretum. "It was an honor to be part of this special occasion and celebrate Paul's terrific accomplishment" said Flood.

Attention Artists: PGC Seeks Paintings for Wildlife Design Contest

By Rep. Anne Flood

SLATE BELT - The Pennsylvania Game Commission (PGC) is seeking paintings for its 2025 Working Together for Wildlife Design Contest.

The 2025 featured species is the black bear. One or more black bears can be featured in a horizontal painting measuring exactly 22.5x15 inches, or a vertical painting measuring exactly 15x22.5 inches. Each painting must have a 3-inch-wide white border or mat and be left unsigned and unframed.

Participants must be Pennsylvania residents. For each entry, there is a $30 non-refundable entrance fee payable to the Pennsylvania Game Commission. Paintings must be delivered to PGC headquarters, 2001 Elmerton Ave., Harrisburg, by 4 p.m. on Monday, July 22.
