IN REVIEW

Wild Joins International Leaders in Normandy for 80th Anniversary of D-Day

On Thursday, I joined Speaker Mike Johnson, President Biden, civilian and military leaders, veterans, and active duty servicemembers as part of a bipartisan Congressional Delegation (CODEL) to France for the 80th Anniversary of D-Day. The scenes I have seen here are moving beyond words. Eighty years ago, brave young Americans laid down their lives on this shore to protect freedom, liberty, and justice around the world. Their blood is the price of our freedom, and it is truly an honor to be here visiting their graves and standing on the beaches where they died.

I'm also proud to have had the opportunity to personally thank so many incredible WWII veterans for their courage and service in the war, including Matt Gutman of Allentown. As a teen, Mr. Gutman left high school to join the war effort, serving as a coxswain of a Higgins landing ship in the Pacific – the same type of landing craft used in the Normandy invasion. I'm profoundly grateful for Mr. Gutman's service, and the service of all who fight to defend our nation.
