

Wrestlers

Sean's success has spanned his wrestling career - with 125 wins to date. Sean, your success is a testament to your grit and hard work.

Keanu Dillard

Third, I am proud to introduce Keanu Dillard. Keanu just finished his sophomore year at Bethlehem Catholic High School and is a two-time district, regional and state champion. This March he won his second PIAA 3A Championship in the 121-pound weight class and this April walked away a U-17 US Open freestyle champion. His coaches and teammates credit Keanu with being more physical and better at hand fighting with his success this season, and he now has potential to make history and add two more state titles to his list and become District-11's second ever four-time state champ.

Aubre

Krazer Last, but certainly not least, I'd like to welcome a true trailblazer. Aubre Krazer is a junior from Easton Area High who made history this year by becoming the FIRST PIAA State Girls wrestling champion for the 130-pound weight class! This was Aubre's third championship season, and what a season it was – Aubre ended the season undefeated with 27 wins. Not a single loss! Aubre's determination deserves a special shout out because she's a pioneering athlete in a sport that's long been dominated by boys. Aubre shows that regardless of institutional barriers, if you give it your all and put in the work, you can cut a path to success – and dominate.

From L to R: Aubre Krazer (Easton High School); Keanu Dilliard (Bethlehem Catholic High School); Senator Lisa Boscola; Tahir Parkins (Nazareth High School); Sean Kinney (Nazareth High School)
