a WILD week IN REVIEW

I hope you all had a wonderful Fourth of July spent with family and loved ones. Each year on this holiday we are called to remember the principle our nation was founded upon, "that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." As your representative in Congress, I keep this belief in mind every single day.

College students: there is only one week left to apply for an internship with my Washington, D.C. office! Interns in both D.C. and Pennsylvania play a critical role in keeping my office running, and have opportunities to interact with constituents, work with my legislative and communications teams, and assist with casework inquiries. To learn more about internships in the D.C. and Lehigh Valley offices, visit my website.

Rep. Wild Honors Susan Klotz, Thanks Local Educators

You may remember several floor speeches I gave earlier this year honoring outstanding teachers in our community for teacher appreciation month. One of those teachers was Ms. Susan Klotz from Kenneth N. Butz Elementary School, whose work with the Kindness Squad has helped spread joy across our community and our world.

This week, I presented Ms. Klotz with a commemorative copy of the Congressional Record, in recognition of her dedication to her students and her community. School may be out for the summer, but I'm always so grateful for the incredible work our teachers do to educate, inspire, and care for their students. In Congress, I will always work to ensure our teachers, students, and public school have the resources they need to thrive.
