BANGOR - Hosted by the Slate Belt Chamber of Commerce and MC'd by Dir. Beth Duyssen in historic Bangor, Hanna Price with her husband and her staff cut the ribbon for her grand opening of The Vault Hair Co.

Representatives from the offices of By State Rep. Ann Flood, Senator Lisa Boscola, Congressman Ryan Mackenzie were there to present citations for bringing economic development to Northampton County. Slate Belt Rising was represented by Dir. Brian Fenstermaker who remarked "we helped Hanna with our 'lease subsidy program' which pays her lease for a short time to help get her started."

Hanna was surrounded by friends, family and the community during the event that she had been planning for months. She thanked the Huratiak family for all the renovations that were done to the historic building especially saving the 'vault' which became the name of her new business.
