

Summer Sounds

Continued from page 1

Call some friends and make it a great night with music food and fun with your friends.

There are still four more concerts left to see for this year: At Wind Gap Park: 8/8 Jesse Wade Gang, Hard-hitting, rockin, country blues tribute band; 8/22 The Comfort Band, Country & Oldies Music.

At Pen Argyl Park: 8/1 Desire, Playing oldies music of the 50's-70's; 8/15 Inch and the Echoes, Playing Oldies music of the 50's-70's.

All concerts are free, begin at 6 P.M at Wind Gap or Weona Park Band shells, as noted. All Covid Guidelines Will Be Followed. Masks And Social Distancing Will Be Followed. Please Check Thoroughout The Season In Case Guidleines Change. Concerts May Be Canceled If Required By Regulations.

Above Blue Mt. Railroad. This scaled down replica from trains of the day took riders on a quater mile loop twice around the complex. Another vintage ride was the Blue Mt. Railroad. This scaled down replica from trains of the day took riders on a quater mile loop twice, built by D. Dieter from Cherryville, Pa. he also made the train tracks with all the sinage.

Right Landan Postal shows off his matching t-shirt to this antique John Deer tractor

Above Riley Garr won first place and received a blue ribbon and trophy in the kid's pedal tractor pull

Right Demonstration of gas and steam engines at work.

My wife and our family who attended on Sunday couldn't leave without getting something to eat, some ice cream for the grandson and some veggies and fruit from the farmers market to take home. Spending time with the family and making memories is what its all about at Jacktown events.

Gas and Tractor

Continued from page 1

Garr won first place and received a blue ribbon and trophy.

There were demonstrations every day from american sawmill, butcher shop and print shop in the steam shed to farm equipment display at the Farm Musuem.

For everyones enjoyment a trolley was pulled by an antique tractor that took riders