Bill to Expand Body Camera Use for Law Enforcement Passes Senate

By Senator Rosemary Brown

To boost safety and accountability, the Senate passed legislation to expand the use of body-worn cameras to additional law enforcement personnel. The measure was sent to the House of Representatives for consideration.

Senate Bill 520 authorizes the use of body cameras by special agents with the Office of Attorney General, rangers with the Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, and officers and deputies with the Pennsylvania Game Commission and Fish and Boat Commission.

The bill also modernizes the legal framework for body camera usage to ensure consistency in how footage is recorded and managed, regardless of the department using it.

Congratulations, Trent Carollo!

By Senator Rosemary Brown

I had the privilege of honoring and congratulating Trent Carollo of Troop 83 on achieving the impressive rank of Eagle Scout!

Earning the rank of Eagle is no small feat. It represents years of hard work, leadership, service, and dedication to the values of the Boy Scouts of America. Trent's accomplishments speak to his character and the strong foundation he's built for his future.
