

The Big Time

The girl selling the 2nd most tickets is the princess and the remaining contestants make up the queens court. Over the years, some of the contestants have sold several thousand tickets to become queen. This fundraiser has proven significant to help sustain the parish' financial needs. On Sunday, the festival turns it's focus to Mary. The festival queen crowns the statue of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, the patron saint of our Church. Following the crowning, The Fourth Degree Knight of Columbus, Pastors, altar servers, visiting clergy, and the Sodality along with many faithful parishioners process down Garibaldi avenue following the Queens float, reciting the decades of the rosary.
