Learning Locomotion Open Their Third Location in The Slate Belt

By Michael Ortoski

WIND GAP - Co-Owners Tanya Peifly and Eileen Peifly Opened the doors to their new and third education-based childcare school. The new location is at 58 Fairview Ave. in Wind Gap Pa.

The Slate Belt Chamber welcomed the owners with a ribbon cutting ceremony this past Saturday along with Lisa Amey from Rep. Emrick's office and Kathy Poppiti from Senator Scavello's office.

"Our Education-Based Childcare provides a caring, educational experience for your child. Infants, toddlers, preschoolers, pre-kindergartners, school-age children, and even pre-teens are welcome to begin their educational journey with us" says Tanya Peifly.

"We have five levels of care. Children are placed in one of our five levels of care. Infants, aged six weeks to 13 months, are in the first level with lots of developmental toys and care. Toddlers, 13 - 36 months, are next with lots of activities to engage them. Our preschool friends, ages three to four years old, begin learning how to behave in a classroom and begin learning the alphabet and more. In the final level we have our prekindergarten children. They are preparing to move on to kindergarten" says Eileen Peifly.

Tanya Peifly, co-owner has Master's degree in early childhood education from the university of California of Pennsylvania, master's degree in elementary education from East Stroudsburg University with a bachelor of science degree in psychology. She has been with Learning Locomotion for 20years. "Learning
