Highlights from the Plainfield Farmers Fair

By State Rep. Ann Flood

I had a great time at this year's Plainfield Farmers Fair. On Tuesday, I served as a judge for the chocolate cake competition, where local bakers showcased their best scratch-made recipes. The quality and creativity on display were impressive, and I might still be feeling full from all the delicious cake!

Later that evening, I connected with residents at my office's information table, sharing details about upcoming events and the services we provide. My legislative aide, Alex, continued outreach on Friday by staffing the table and greeting visitors, including Congressman Ryan Mackenzie, who stopped by to say hello.

The fair featured a variety of attractions for all ages. Visitors enjoyed seeing farm animals up close, sampling delicious food from local vendors and taking in live entertainment throughout the day. It was a wonderful opportunity for the community to connect and celebrate local agriculture and culture. I am grateful to everyone who came out and helped make the event such a memorable success!
