National Night Out In Roseto

By Michael Ortoski

ROSETO - The borough of Roseto held their annual National Nite Out at their borough park last week. The event is an annual community-building campaign that promotes police-community partnerships and neighborhood camaraderie to make our neighborhoods safer, more caring places to live. National Night Out enhances the relationship between neighbors and law enforcement while bringing back a true sense of community. Furthermore, it provides a great opportunity to bring police and neighbors together under positive circumstances.

Roseto police at their booth were issuing child ID cards, Columbia Fire Company and Blue Valley rescue squad displayed their equipment and had games for the kids. Dinky's ice cream and Roseto helping hands served food and ice cream to the event goers and an

Peter Reisen 50 years with Mount Bethel Fire Co.

By Michael Ortoski

BANGOR - On Friday at State Rep. Joe Emricks office, Emrick presented Peter Reisen a citation from the House of Representative for 50 years of service with Mount Bethel Fire Co. along with his partner Ingrid Berner.

Reisen, 80, began working as a volunteer firefighter with the Mount Bethel Fire Co. in 1969.

Born in 1939, Reisen moved to Upper Mount Bethel with his family when he was a year old.

Reisen served in the U.S. Army for most of the 1960s. Other than the time he was stationed in Korea and other places the Army took him, he has spent his entire life living in the township.

When he returned from military service, he joined the local fire company and hasn't looked back, he said.

DOING THE MOST GOOD

50 Years of Service

"This township has been my home," Reisen said. "I'm proud of it."

Reisen doesn't tell stories of burning buildings or other dangerous situations. Instead, he speaks of the younger firefighters he helped train and watched grow into seasoned veterans.

In the 1980s, Reisen was responsible for initiating a junior firefighter program. He brought fire trucks to Bangor Area High School to train students on them and let them use the ladders, he said.

Two brothers who trained under Reisen in the junior firefighter program, one went on to a career in the U.S. Coast Guard and the other became a fire marshal.

A big accomplishment Reisen reminisces about was helping organize the township's bicentennial celebration in 1987. He spent three years working on the celebration and was able to recruit so many fire and rescue companies that it took four hours for the various vehicles to make their way through township roads during the bicentennial parade, he said.

Reisen, who retired from truck driving in 2016, raised four children in the Portland with his wife Evelyn, who died in 2006. All four children still live in the Slate Belt.

Reisen recently finished his third stint as commander of American Legion of Mount Bethel and Portland Post 216. He has been an active member of the local Lutheran Brethren church.

Still an active member of the fire company, Reisen helps out with company fundraisers and gun shows serving drinks or preparing food.

Proud of his work with youngsters, Reisen said he encourages the younger generation to participate in public service. "Get involved," Reisen said. "Step up to the plate and do your thing."

The township honored Reisen for his service at the Independence Day celebration at the Community Park on Potomac Street on July 4.

Ingrid Berner, who has lived with Reisen for several years, said newcomers to the township are often advised to speak with Reisen to find out what they need to know about the township.
