From Constitution House 1874 To The New Johnsonville Inn 2023

By Michael Ortoski

JOHNSONVILLE - Owners Ed and Donna Curry who bought the old 'Constitution House' built in 1874 in Johnsonville in 2019 have completed their renovations and are planning to open in the coming weeks. The Inn will be serving contemporary American food specializing in steaks, using USDA-Certified beef. Their full menu can be found on their website at <https://johnsonvilleinn.com>.

Johnsonville Inn has a rich and robust history dating back to 1848 when Jacob and Diana Stier bought the land from George and Elizabeth Beck. While the land was eventually sold to their son, Phillip in 1863, it was not until 1874 that Phillip's brother, William Gould Stier would build The Constitution House on the property.

Community Action Lehigh Valley Receives $100K Grant, Honored at Musikfest

By CALV

BETHLEHEM, PA – August 11, 2023 – Local anti-poverty nonprofit Community Action Lehigh Valley (Community Action) has received a $100,000 grant from Wells Fargo to support its housing counseling, financial coaching, small business and neighborhood revitalization programs. Community Action's Executive Director, Dawn Godshall, was recognized for the organization's work to improve the quality of life for people in the Lehigh Valley at Musikfest, the region's largest free music festival.

"We extend our heartfelt thanks to Wells Fargo for their transformative grant to Community Action Lehigh Valley. This contribution, a part of a remarkable six-year commitment through the Pennsylvania Neighborhood Partnership Program (PA NPP), empowers Community Action to drive economic progress in our region.
