

Blue Valley Farm Show

Adult and kids tractor/truck pull is back! The Farm Show created a brand new area with a new track and fenced in for safety. Two of the winners in the childrens category were Levi & Hunter Ott.

There were pie and water melon eating contests, car cruise, baby & pet photo contests and lots of exhibits, games and rides for all ages.

A big Shoutout to all the sponcers and the great many volunteers it takes to put this wonderful event on every year!

Right Slate Belt Chamber work their 'Santa's Elves' dime toss to raise money for their annual childrens Christmas Party held at Blue Valley Farm Show in December.

The Ott family: Justin, Robin and their sons Levi and Hunter Who both won in their age bracket in the tractor pull contest
