Allentown Rescue Mission Christmas Card Winner Revealed

By Stefanie Appel

ALLENTOWN, PA – The Allentown Rescue Mission is thrilled to announce the winner of its Christmas in July holiday card contest, Richard G. Richard's moonlit forest scene topped eight paintings in a competitive race for the honor of becoming the Allentown Rescue Mission's 2025 Christmas card picture.

All the paintings were created in the Mission's Therapeutic Art Class by men in crisis who are residing at the Mission. As the winner, Richard will be highlighted on the card with his painting, and he will receive a gift card for a local eatery. "I'm 53 years old and this is the first time in my life that I won something, and it's so huge that it will be shared with the world for Christmas. I will cherish this moment for the rest of my life.

Thank you. It's an honor and a privilege," Richard jubilantly stated. Richard grew up in an intact, Christian family but began rebelling at the age of eleven. For four decades, he didn't take responsibility for his actions; he "chased the high." But after jail time and a drug overdose, Richard came to the Allentown Rescue Mission with a vision to do better. Today, as a graduate of the Mission's Transformation Program, Richard is employed by the Clean Team Workforce.

He's excelling at the jobs he's been given and showing responsibility and initiative. The Allentown Rescue Mission thanks all the guests who participated in the contest. The contest and Christmas card would not be possible without their willingness to take a risk and put their talents in the public eye.

Thank You Friend Of The Institute AARCHER

By IHMM

LEHIGH VALLEY - We would like to thank AARCHER for their ongoing support of the IHMM Foundation and for being a Friend of the Institute.

Generosity is more than a gift; it is a statement of an individual's commitment and dedication to growing the hazmat and EHS communities of practice.

Because of friends like AARCHER, the Foundation is able to provide certificants with access to vital education and training programs, professional development opportunities, academic scholarships, networking, and more.

Together, we're building a safer, stronger future.

Thank You for Your 2025 Annual Contribution AARCHER

Training - The Archer Institute helps EHS professionals navigate operational risks, meet regulatory challenges, and achieve their environmental and safety management goals through training. <https://aarcherinstitute.com/>

Consulting - We have supported environmental programs for more than 5,000 companies in nearly every industrial sector, including many Fortune 500 companies, while working to solve environmental challenges at more than 10,000 locations across the country.

As a federal contractor, we have provided environmental services to more than 25 federal and state government agencies. Our team of environmental compliance and management experts work in every state and maintain reference data and working knowledge of your state's environmental regulations. Third-party environmental compliance auditing is at the heart of AARCHER consulting services, and we have identified and helped correct more than 30,000 compliance deficiencies for our clients.

Recruiting - AARCHER recruiters are trained in environmental regulations, understand the critical EHS skill sets, and can determine whether a candidate's experience is truly applicable to an open position. They work with employers and HR staff to understand the organization's needs and match candidates carefully.

Conference - Join fellow environmental compliance managers to re-think compliance strategies, stay current on emerging requirements, and exchange ideas with colleagues from across the U.S.
