

Blue Valley Farm Show Brings Community Together

By State Rep. Ann Flood
The 79th annual Blue Valley Farm Show in Bangor was a blast!

This tradition brings together neighbors, families and friends to celebrate our agricultural heritage and enjoy a week of fun. It was a pleasure to connect with so many community members and hear what is on your mind. I even ran into Smokey Bear for a quick photo — he told me that only you can prevent forest fires.

My legislative aide, Alex, helped staff our table, where we shared information about upcoming events and the many services my office provides. From answering questions to offering resources, we are always available to help.
