Jonathan Hoadley. "The Slate Belt Regional Police Department supports information sharing with the community, in order to provide both recognition of trafficking, as well as the sharing of available resources for victims of these crimes."

Pen Argyl's Mayor Stephen Male will be the emcee for the event and the speakers will include Chief Hoadley; Patrick Jochum, special agent with Homeland Security Investigations; and Carol Andersen, CEO of Bloom for Women.

There will also be representatives from the Pennsylvania State Police and local law enforcement agencies.

Speakers are expected to discuss what human trafficking is, how to identify signs of human trafficking in our community, what is being done and can be done to combat this human trafficking and provide valuable resources.
