

a WILD week IN REVIEW

Rep. Wild Attends Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Breakfast

This week, I had the opportunity to spend time with members of our agricultural community at the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Breakfast in Bangor! I was glad to hear from many of our ag sector members about their priorities and the challenges they face – including Krissa of Brewer Dairy Farms, who shared with me her experience of operating a family-owned dairy and what I can do to help support the work of dairy farmers in Pennsylvania.

Whether you run a dairy, a farm, a ranch, or work any other critical ag sector job, the work you do puts food on our tables, and none of it is simple or easy. As the saying goes, “everyone needs to eat.” I will always advocate for the needs of our community’s ag sector, so that you have someone working for you in Washington.
