We Will Never Forget!

By Michael Ortoski

SLATE BELT - Monday marked the 22nd anniversary of one of the worst days in our nation's history. On Sept. 11, 2001, nearly 3,000 men and women were killed in devastating terrorist attacks in New York; Washington, D.C.; and Pennsylvania, including more than 400 first responders.

Those we lost on Sept. 11 will be honored and remembered in observances all across the country this weekend, including one at Pennsylvania's own Flight 93 Memorial, near the site where one of the four planes hijacked that day crashed.

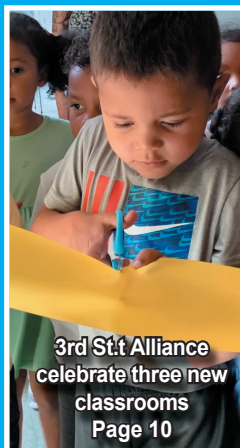

Events that were observed in our area:

Monday morning, Washington Township School District hosted local first responders. The district was chosen as a partner school with the Freedom Flag Foundation.
