a WILD week IN REVIEW

September 1st, marks the start to Suicide Prevention Month. In every corner of every community, there are people who have been touched in some way by the suicide epidemic and mental health crisis that too many of our loved ones are experiencing. I'm committed to shining light on the mental health issues that too many of our friends, loved ones, and neighbors experience – this issue is one that's very close to my heart, and I am working to address this crisis to help every person access the mental health care they need.

I want to remind you that if you or a loved one needs support, the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline provides 24/7 confidential crisis counseling – call or text "988".
