

Remembering September 11, 2001

By Senator Rosemary Brown

PA - Once again, we pause on Sept. 11 to remember the tragic events on that date in 2001 – attacks that changed our nation forever. It's been 24 years, but the memories of the lives lost, the bravery shown, and the unity that followed remain with us.

We honor the nearly 3,000 people killed in New York, Washington, D.C. and Pennsylvania, and hold in our hearts the families left behind. The first responders who courageously gave their lives to save others remain a source of inspiration for a nation brought together in grief and determined to keep America's enemies at bay.

In Pennsylvania, we reflect on the heroism of those aboard Flight 93, who acted with bravery to prevent even more devastation. We also honor the first responders in the 40th District who risked their lives for others on that fateful day: Barry Anfang, John Tucci, Joe Costa, Ralph Rodriguez, Steve Lane, William Chartie, Jay Scarpa, Ken Emanuele, Darlene Line, Mike Krug, Mitch Spritzler, Gary Haff, Tom Venterini, Paul Brodowsky, and many more in our area that go unrecognized.

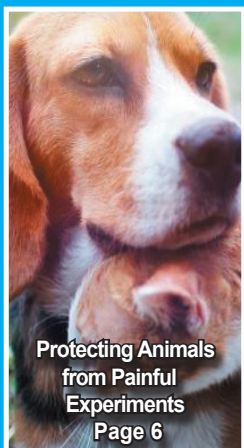

We will never forget.

Remembering Charlie Kirk and Rejecting Political Violence

By U.S. Congressman Ryan Mackenzie

PA - On Wednesday, we witnessed the assassination of Charlie Kirk — a proud American and a passionate champion for free speech. Our prayers are with the family of Mr. Kirk, especially his wife and children, as they grieve this senseless killing.

Despite the unsettling frequency of political violence in recent years, we cannot allow ourselves to become accustomed to this behavior. Attacks like these are an assault on our American values, our democratic principles, and the rule of law. May we unite around peace, love of country, and the right to express ourselves as Americans.

Celebrating Service at Veterans Appreciation Breakfast

By Rep. Ann Flood

WIND GAP - On Thursday, I had the privilege of hosting my Veterans Appreciation Breakfast and Mini Expo at Scorecard Sports Bar & Grill in Wind Gap.

It was an honor to spend time with veterans, active-duty service members, military spouses and their families as we remembered the anniversary of Sept. 11 and reflected on the service and sacrifice that protect our freedoms.
