a WILD week IN REVIEW

Rep. Wild Introduces Bill to Keep Child Care Centers Open

At the end of the month, the Child Care Stabilization Grant funding I helped pass through the American Rescue Plan will expire – leaving child care centers, parents, and kids in the lurch if we don't act soon. I'm working to prevent the child care cliff we're facing by pushing to pass the Child Care Stabilization Act: a bill I introduced this week to extend this grant funding, keep care providers' doors open, and get parents' costs down.

Without the key funding, more than 152,000 Pennsylvania kids could lose their child care slots, and more than 70,000 child care centers across the country would be forced to close. Access to affordable, reliable, quality child care is essential economic infrastructure that working families need to be able to earn more and get ahead. I'm fighting to address this crisis, extend this funding, and keep pushing to make child care accessible to every family. Click here to read more.

Rep. Wild Announces Affordable Housing Investment in Bethlehem

On Wednesday, I joined Senator Casey and Senator Fetterman in announcing a $500,000 neighborhood revitalization grant for Bethlehem's Stefko-Pembroke Neighborhood, including Pembroke Village. Too many of our neighbors struggle to find safe, affordable housing in their communities, which is why I'm thrilled about this grant funding that will help revitalize already existing affordable housing units in Pembroke Village.

I'll continue working to bring home federal investments to build safe, welcoming neighborhoods from everyone across our community, in every part of PA-07. Click here to read more.
