Strengthening EMS Across Pennsylvania

By State Rep. Ann Flood

Cetronia Ambulance Corps hosted a discussion on Friday with state legislators, their staff, and board members to address challenges facing the EMS industry. Participants explored critical issues such as staffing shortages, funding needs, and the evolving demands on emergency medical services across the state.

The conversation highlighted opportunities to strengthen EMS, improve resources for first responders, and better support the communities they serve every day. Collaboration between legislators, their offices, and EMS leaders is essential to finding sustainable solutions that ensure timely and effective emergency care for all Pennsylvanians.

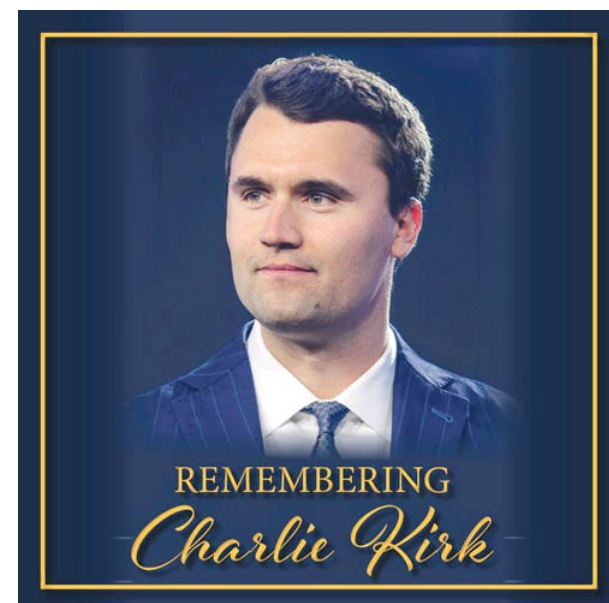

We appreciate the participation of Rep. Mike Schlossberg and the representatives of John Fetterman, Dave McCormick, U.S. Rep. Ryan Mackenzie, Sen. Jarrett Coleman, Sen. Nick Miller, Rep. Peter Schweyer, and Pa. Rep. Gary Day in this important discussion. My legislative aide, Melanie, attended on my behalf.

Remembering Charlie Kirk

By State Rep. Ann Flood

I am heartbroken over the assassination of Charlie Kirk. He was a passionate voice who inspired young people to think critically, get involved, and stand for what they believe in. At just 31, he leaves behind a devoted wife and two young children, making this loss all the more tragic. His energy, conviction, and the mark he left on so many lives will not be forgotten.

This tragedy is a sobering reminder that political violence has no place in our society. We must engage with one another through discussion and debate, not hatred or aggression. My thoughts are with his family, friends, and everyone whose lives he touched. Though his life was cut far too short, Charlie's influence and the ideas he championed will carry on.
