Instructions For Mail-in Ballots

By Becky Bartlett

EASTON - The Elections Office has begun sending mail-in ballots out through the United States Postal Service for the General Election on November 2nd. Anyone who wants to vote by mail, must apply by October 26th. Applications for a mail-in or civilian absentee ballots are available in the Election's Office or at www.vote.pa.gov Voters can check the status of their ballot at that website.

Mail-in ballots must meet the following criteria to be counted.

- The ballot must be sealed inside the secrecy envelope
- If the secrecy envelope contains any text, marks or symbols which reveals the identity of the elector, the elector's political affiliation or the elector's candidate preference, the envelope and the ballot it contains will be set aside and declared void
- The voter must sign and date the outer return envelope
- The ballot must be received by the Elections Office by 8:00PM on November 2nd

Voters can return mail-in ballots by bringing them directly to the Elections Office at the Government Center at 669 Washington Street, Easton, PA, by using one of the county's four secure ballot drop-off boxes or through the U.S. mail. The envelopes include postage so voters do not need to add a stamp.

Secure ballot drop-off boxes will be available from October 4th until 8:00PM on November 2nd.

Rotunda of the Government Center – 669 Washington Street, Easton,

o Monday – Friday from 8:30AM – 8:00PM

Human Services Building – 2801 Emrick Blvd. Bethlehem, PA

o Monday – Friday from 8:30AM – 7:00PM

Northampton County 911 Center – 100 Gracedale Ave. Nazareth,

o Monday – Friday from 8:30AM – 8:00PM

Bethlehem City Hall – 10 E. Church Street, Bethlehem, PA 18018

o Monday – Friday from 8:00AM – 4:00PM

Voters may only drop off their own ballots. Third party return of ballots is prohibited unless the person returning the ballot is rendering assistance to a disabled voter or emergency absentee voter and has a signed "Certification of Designated Agent" form. A copy of these forms can be downloaded at vote.pa.gov

All precincts will be open on November 2nd for in-person voting.

Expanded hours for ballot-on-demand voting

The Northampton County Elections Office announces that hours have been expanded for Ballot-on-Demand voting for the November 2nd General Election. Citizens can vote in-person at the Government Center at 669 Washington Street, Easton, PA 18042, Monday through Friday from 8:30AM – 6:00PM until October 25, 2021. On October 26th, Ballot-on-Demand voting hours will end at 5:00PM.

Residents of Northampton County who are eligible to vote can come to the Elections Office, register if they have not already, fill out a ballot application, vote on a paper ballot and turn it in all in the same visit. Showing ID is required before receiving your ballot.

Registered voters who have already applied for a mail-in ballot are not eligible for Ballot-on-Demand and must wait to receive their ballot in the mail. The Elections Office expects to start mailing ballots out by the beginning of October.
