Rep. Susan Wild Statement on Ongoing Terrorist Attacks in Israel

ALLENTOWN, P.A. – Amid the ongoing terrorist attacks in Israel, Congresswoman Susan Wild released the following statement:

“As I’ve watched unbelievable tragedy continue to unfold in Israel, I am outraged, devastated, and heartbroken. The vicious attacks launched by Hamas are terrorist attacks on civilians, and they are disgusting and unforgiveable. I am standing with the Israeli people in this time of terrible danger, fear, and worry, and I am mourning deeply for the innocent lives lost and the countless innocent Israeli and Palestinian civilians at risk as this terrorism drags on.

“In February of this year on a trip to Israel, I visited Kibbutz Kfar Azza, where there have been reports of Israeli hostages taken. There are no words to describe this kind of terror and devastation that people I met and spoke with just months ago are experiencing, and I grieve for the innocent lives caught in this violence.

“The United States must do everything possible to stand firm with our ally Israel and its right to defend itself and its people, and I remain unwavering in my commitment to efforts to restore peace and security in the region.”

Additionally, Congresswoman Wild shared the following resources from the Department of State for U.S. citizens and their loved ones currently in Israel:

The U.S. State Department has individuals working around the clock to assist U.S. citizens currently in Israel. Citizens looking to contact the U.S. Embassy should request assistance here or call 1-833-890-9595 or 1-606-641-0131.
