

Capitol All-Stars Fundraiser to Fight Hunger in Pennsylvania

By Rep. Ann Flood

HARRISBURG - Swinging for the fences at the Capitol All-Stars game at City Island in Harrisburg last week! A day of camaraderie, competition, and good old-fashioned fun.

This softball game brought together lawmakers from both chambers and both parties to get together to hit a home run against hunger! We were joined by Hunger-Free Pennsylvania and Feeding Pennsylvania to raise money for those in need.

Since its launch in 2013, the Capitol All-Stars charitable softball game has raised more than $450,000 to fight hunger in Pennsylvania.

Northampton County Centenarian Luncheon

By Rep. Ann Flood

EASTON - On Thursday, Northampton County hosted the Centenarian Luncheon, an event celebrating a small but growing segment of the population: people in their 100th year and older. This event took place at Green Pond Country Club, and was attended by my office staff member, Lisa.

In 2020, there were 80,139 people 100 years old or older in the U.S., according to the Census Bureau. That was up 50% from the 2020 Census, when there were 53,364 centenarians.

Centenarians are an elite group and most of the members are women. Women have the edge when it comes to longevity, according to the Census Bureau.
