Roseto Fall Family Fun Night

By State Rep. Ann Flood

Roseto Fall Family Fun Night brought the community together on Saturday for a great evening of food, fun, hayrides and more at the Roseto Ballpark. Families filled the park to enjoy the crisp fall weather, catch up with neighbors and take part in the festivities.

My legislative aide, Melanie, and I were glad to join in and host an information table with details about upcoming events and the many services our office provides to residents. Thank you to everyone who stopped by to say hello and learn more about what we do for the community.

Celebrating Farmland Preservation in Northampton County

By State Rep. Ann Flood

Community leaders recently gathered at Unangst Tree Farms to celebrate a major step forward in preserving Northampton County's agricultural heritage. The Unangst family has committed a portion of their land to the Farmland Preservation Program, ensuring it remains protected and productive for generations to come.

Since 1993, Northampton County has worked to preserve farmland through voluntary partnerships with local landowners. This event marked the preservation of the 20,000th acre — a remarkable milestone that reflects decades of dedication to protecting the county's rural character and agricultural economy.

My legislative aide, Lisa, attended on my behalf while I was in Harrisburg for legislative session. I am grateful to the Unangst family for their commitment to conservation and to Deputy Agriculture Secretary Heidi Secord for her leadership and support of Pennsylvania's farming families.

Preserving farmland is about more than open space. It is about honoring our roots, strengthening our economy and investing in the future of our Commonwealth.
