

Canal-o-ween

By DLNHC

EASTON - Saturday, October 25 & Sunday, October 26, 2750
Hugh Moore Park Rd, Easton

Join us for a spooktacular weekend at the National Canal Museum as we celebrate Canal-o-ween! Kids can play special Halloween-themed games & activities, trick-or-treat around Hugh Moore Park, and get a visit from our resident ghouls (mules)! Wear your favorite costume and enjoy 50% off museum admission. Learn More <https://canals.org/events/canal-o-ween/>.

Garden in a Jar: Make a Terrarium!

Explore the world of terrariums in this hands-on workshop presented by the Penn State Extension Master Gardeners of Pike County!

You will learn how to assemble and care for your own half gallon mini-ecosystem terrarium as well as how the ecosystem in a terrarium works.

You can gift it for the holidays or dote on it throughout the winter. All necessary materials will be provided!

Registration Link: <https://extension.psu.edu/garden-in-a-jar-create-a-terrarium>

Or use the convenient QR Code below.

Saturday, November 8, 2025

10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Cost: $35

Penn State Extension Office in Pike County

514 Broad Street, Milford PA

Registration is required, no later than November 2, 2025

Penn State College of Agricultural Sciences research and extension programs are funded in part by Pennsylvania counties, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Please visit extension.psu.edu/alternate-format-request to request this publication in an alternative format accommodation due to a disability.

Penn State is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.

© The Pennsylvania State University 2025 Code

PennState Extension

RYAN
MACKENZIE
U.S. CONGRESS

Fighting To Reopen The Government And Protect Essential Services

By Congressman Ryan Mackenzie

Recently joined Bobby Gunther Walsh's show to discuss the government shutdown — why it happened, what's at stake, and how my team is continuing to work for the people of the Lehigh Valley and the Poconos.

Plain and simple — I voted to keep the government open and funded. Unfortunately, the left in Washington chose to vote against that funding. As a result, we're in a shutdown that hurts our servicemembers, first responders, small businesses, and families. The effects are already being felt, programs like flood insurance and WIC (food assistance for women, infants, and children) are at risk of running out of funding, and families who depend on these services are being left behind.

We've done the responsible thing in the House by passing a clean, short-term funding bill. Liberals can end this shutdown today by supporting a short-term, clean continuing resolution that restores funding and keeps essential services running. It's time to end the political games and start working together to solve problems.

By Congressman Ryan Mackenzie

Three weeks ago, I voted in favor of funding the government with a clean, nonpartisan continuing resolution. The U.S. House did its job to pass that funding, but a minority in the Senate decided that they'd rather play politics. The result is a government shutdown that has serious consequences for the people of the Lehigh Valley and the Poconos.

We're committed to providing you with the information that you need in order to navigate this shutdown. That's why we've updated our Government Shutdown Resource Page with additional information for servicemembers, federal employees, and families affected by the shutdown. It includes details on unemployment benefits, student loan relief, and financial assistance programs being offered by credit unions, banks, and nonprofit organizations.

You can find the latest updates, links to agency resources, and contact information for help at: <https://mackenzie.house.gov/services/government-shutdown-resources>

Supporting Local Manufacturing Jobs

By Congressman Ryan Mackenzie

I'm proud to stand with UAW Local 677 in applauding new trade actions that will protect local manufacturing jobs. Unfair competition from Mexico has threatened the livelihoods of hundreds of Lehigh Valley Mack workers, so I have personally advocated to the Trump administration over the last several months to address this imbalance.

The administration's new trade action on heavy trucks will help ensure companies like Mack Trucks can continue creating good-paying jobs right here in the Lehigh Valley.

PRESS RELEASE

Congressman Mackenzie Applauds Move to Support American Manufacturing and Lehigh Valley Workers, Encourages Further Action

*U.S. Congressman
Ryan Mackenzie*