

Greg Smith Off the Road Band

Chili & Music Fest

When he's on the road he plays with people like Alice Cooper and Ted Nugent wow!

Bakithi Kumalo and the South African All-Stars band played some great Jazz music and turns out Bakithi Kumalo is famous also, he plays with Paul McCartney around the world.

Our two favorite foods were Crab cakes from Little Corner Cafe, and the seafood chili from Empire's Coffee.

HBBA were selling 50/50 tickets during the event to help another non-profit Liberty Fire Co. and announced the winner just before the headliner band Greg Smith Off the Road came on. The money raised was $276 with the winner getting $138, so when Mike from VS Eyewear from Bangor called my name from the stage I was stunned, I donated it all back to one of the many great Fire Companies who protect our communities.

Visit HBBA facebook page for their next great event.

200th Farm Preserved in Northampton County

By Becky Bartlet

EASTON - Northampton County Executive Lamont McClure and the Northampton County Farmland Preservation Board and staff hosted a celebration of the 200th farm to be preserved in Northampton County on Wednesday, October 9th at the Moore Township Farm Property/Schivone Park, 797 Bushkill Drive, Bath, PA.

With the addition of this farm, Northampton County will have preserved 16,690.69 acres. Agriculture is Pennsylvania's number-one industry and Pennsylvania leads the nation with the most preserved farmland. Farmland Preservation allows production agriculture to remain a viable industry in the state.

"As we recognize what we have achieved, we must be ever mindful of where we still need to go," says Lamont McClure. "We must be aware that we all need to do our part to ensure that agriculture, not only here in Northampton County continues, but ensure that generations to come understand the importance it plays in our daily lives and our future."
