

Message on October 7th

By U.S. Senator Dave McCormick

Dina and I were deeply honored and thankful to join hostage families and senior officials from the Trump administration in a special Sukkah of Hope in our nation’s capital hosted by our friends Howard and Allison Lutnick on October 7, 2025.

We will never forget the horrors of October 7, 2023 — the innocent Israelis who were brutally murdered and those taken into captivity by the evil hands of Hamas. Shortly after the massacre, Dina and I visited a kibbutz that had been attacked by Hamas. We met with survivors and families of the hostages. We witnessed firsthand the devastating impact this horrific attack had on Israel’s communities.

We truly admire the courage and faith of the hostage families, and are grateful to President Trump’s leadership and ironclad commitment to bringing the hostages home.

Voting to Reopen the Government

By U.S. Senator Dave McCormick

It’s now been 19 days since the Schumer Shutdown began, and hardworking Americans are feeling the effects. Federal civilian employees have missed their first paycheck, all because Democrats have chosen a reckless path to hold the government hostage.

This shutdown helps no one. It hurts families, disrupts essential services, and puts political games ahead of the people we were elected to serve.

Senator Fetterman and I believe there is never an excuse to shut down the government. At every opportunity, we’ve voted to reopen it because that’s what responsible leadership looks like. Regardless of who’s in charge, I will never support a government shutdown. For us, voting to reopen the government is the commonsense Pennsylvania way.

Celebrating an Historic Win for Families

By U.S. Senator Dave McCormick

When I worked in the private sector, I made it a priority to ensure my colleagues had access to IVF benefits as they pursued their dreams of starting a family.

Later, during my campaign, I made a promise to advocate for expanded access to these vital services for every Pennsylvanian.

This week, I’m proud to see President Trump delivering on a pro-family vision. His administration is taking concrete steps to make IVF more affordable for all. Nothing in life compares to the joy of becoming a parent. Dina and I are deeply grateful to experience that joy every day through our six daughters between us.

This marks an historic step forward for women, for mothers, and for families in Pennsylvania and across the nation.
